

At the Chemist's

Complete the dialogues. Use the sentences below.
There are two extra sentences that you do not need.

a) Here's your prescription.

b) Apply a thin layer twice a day.

c) Both.

d) Did you remove the stinger?

e) I would like to pick up a prescription.

f) You will find a set of bandages and plasters in it

g) What's the problem?

h) Could you recommend something for that?

i) Yes, I can't eat peanuts.

j) These painkillers will help you.

k) How old is the patient?

l) May I look at the prescription?

Pharmacist: How may I help you?

Customer: 1)

Pharmacist: When was it sent in?

Customer: About an hour ago.

Patient: I have a rash on my neck.

2)

Pharmacist: I think this ointment could help.

Patient: Can I buy it without a prescription?

Pharmacist: Yes, you can get it over the counter.

Patient: How should I apply the ointment?

Pharmacist: 3)

Pharmacist: Are you allergic to any food?

Patient: 4)

Customer: I need some bandages and plasters.

Pharmacist: We have a variety of such. However, I would recommend this first-aid kit which is half the price now.

5), including antiseptic wipes and antibiotic ointment.

Customer: Sounds great to me. That's what I need.

